

California Department of Public Health

Effective July 1, 2007

1 = Laboratory Central Services will reside in the Administration Division, which is already responsible for the operation and maintenance of the Department's Richmond Laboratory Complex.

2 = Office of Women's Health has a coordinating relationship, organizationally it is located in DHCS.

3 = The Center for Infectious Disease includes the Microbial Disease and Viral and Rickettsial Disease laboratories.

4 = The Environmental Laboratory Accreditation Program will join the Food and Drug, Sanitation and Radiation, and Environmental Health laboratories in the Center for Environmental Health

5 = Laboratory Field Services will merge into the Center for Healthcare Quality along with the Licensing and Certification Program

6 = Proposed in Governor's Health Reform Proposal

March 12, 2007 Version